

CHRIS LOWE

One of Canada's most talented up and coming show jumping riders, Chris has been steadily climbing through the ranks of show jumping in Canada with considerable success along the way. In 1999 he was named the World Champion Hunter rider. He rode on the B.C. North American Young Riders' Team in 2000 and 2004, and last year received the Molson Three Star Award for Leading Canadian Rider at Spruce Meadows in Calgary. In April he was awarded British Columbia's 2004 Premier's Athletic Award for Male Equestrian Athlete of the Year. Chris is also a full time Business student at UBC. Chris Lowe is very deserving of the 2005 VP Competitions Award.
