

Horse Council BC

February 25, 2010

Calling all trail riders!

Horse Council BC has been contacted by Northern BC Tourism regarding a trail study that is underway for the Peace River Regional District.

Make sure equestrian interests are represented!

Northern BC Tourism would like to hear from equestrians in the district to obtain information on equestrian trails and/or equestrian trail issues. If you are a trail rider, or know of a local trail rider (whether or not they are members of Horse Council BC), it would be in the best interests of present and future equestrian trail users in the area to contact John Bass of Northern BC Tourism or Tim Bennett of Recreation Sites & Trails BC.

Contact Northern BC Tourism

Please contact John Bass at 250-785-2544 or jb.tourism@gmail.com to contribute information for the Peace River Regional District Trail Study.

Contact Recreation Sites & Trails BC

Tim Bennett, District Forest Recreation Officer, Peace and Fort Nelson Districts, of Recreation Sites & Trails BC, Ministry of Tourism Culture and the Arts, wants to hear from northern BC equestrians interested in working with him to map existing trails or to help plan and develop new equestrian trails in north-eastern BC. Tim can be reached at 250-784-0178 or by email at Tim.Bennett@gov.bc.ca.

Join BC Equestrian Trails

If equestrian trails are important to you, please join BC Equestrian Trails Group. It is a communications and resource group for anyone concerned with equestrian trails, and membership is free.

Please feel free to forward this message on to anyone who values horseback riding on trails in north-eastern BC. If you have any questions, please contact Ruth Donald of Horse Council BC at 1-800-345-8055 or recreation@hcbc.ca.

Happy Trails!
