About Aldergrove Agricultural Association

Aldergrove Agricultural Association (AAA) has been in existence since 1912 as a non-profit organization dedicated to promoting agriculture through education, information and awareness to the general public and farms in the area.

Our organization hosts the Aldergrove Fall Fair (now known as "Aldergrove Fair Days") annually to further educate the public of where our food comes from and promote local growers. The fair is attended by an average of 3300 people every year and the fair's prize book has a circulation of approximately 500 copies.

For more information please contact Daniel J Deyette, President of Aldergrove Agricultural Association, at (604) 512 - 4116.
